

ECR Training event programme:

Tuesday 24th October: Room 237 B, the Advanced Research Centre

<http://www.gla.ac.uk/about/maps/>

- 9:00-9:20 Registration and coffee/tea
- 9:20-9:30 Welcome and overview of the event (Mihaela Paun, Glasgow University)
- 09:30-09:50 What does it take to be successful in science (Dirk Husmeier, Glasgow University)
- 09:50-10:10 What does it take to be a successful academic (Krasimira Tsaneva, Exeter University)
- 10:10-10:40 How to get an early career research grant (Peter Stewart, Glasgow University)
- 10:40-11:10 Career planning in academia versus industry: Industry to academia transition (Fiona Bradley, Glasgow University)
- 11:10-11:40 Coffee break
- 11:40-12:00 Open discussion; Q&A (Mette Olufsen, North Carolina State University)
- 12:00-13:00 Tools and tricks for distributed numerical computing and inference:
12:00-12:40 TensorFlow: Colin Torney, Glasgow University
12:40-13:00 JAX: David Dalton, Glasgow University
- 13:00-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00-15:00: Academic speed dating to identify common research interests
- 15:00-15:30 Afternoon coffee/tea and scones/snack
- 15:30-17:00 Team work with prizes: participants get together as a team, using preferences based on the preceding speed dating to design a collaboration plan